IAC Vein Center Now Accepting Online Applications

NOVEMBER 4, 2013 | The Intersocietal Accreditation Commission (IAC) is now accepting online applications for vein center accreditation. As of November 4, 2013, applicant vein centers now have access to IAC Online Accreditation (www.iaonlineaccreditation.org) for the first time.

ABOUT ONLINE ACCREDITATION

The user-friendly, secure online application offers participating facilities the ability to view and download their decision letters and other correspondence, upload attachments, chat live with IAC staff members throughout the application, download their facility's marketing materials and much more!
